FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

This past Sunday was called "Good Shepherd Sunday" as the Gospel reading tells us about Jesus, the Good Shepherd Who lays down His life for His sheep. We are all (especially teachers, pastors, parents) called to be "good shepherds" to those we have responsibility for, with loving self-sacrifice seeking the true good of others. The Catechism reminds us that when this applies to our children, we have a responsibility for both their physical and spiritual well-being. Of course, it is important that we provide things like food, shelter, clothing, protection from physical dangers, etc. but we often might not emphasize the spiritual side as much as we should. To be "good shepherds" to our children also includes praying together, going to Church together, talking about God's loving plan for us and the hope of eternal life that Our Good Shepherd died on the Cross to give us. May Our Lord give us the help we need to share in this labor of love.
