FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

This school year we have started monthly "Hawk Awards," where our faculty recognizes positive qualities or virtues in our students. The recipients of the Hawk Award for "Kindness" in September were McKenzie Korando and Will Hesse (Congratulations!) This month, our theme is "Respect." We are reminded that all people have human dignity and are to be treated with respect since we are created in God's image. This even includes people that irritate us, have acted badly, and that we often find to be troublesome. So, in a sense, when we respect others, we are showing respect to God and when we disrespect them, this also reflects on our treatment of God. We Count it All Joy when we show respect even when it is difficult. Who will the recipient(s) of our "Respect" award be? We will find out soon!
